What is the deadline for The Challenge?

The deadline for video uploads is December 16, 2019 by midnight (PST)

Who is eligible to enter the contest?

This video contest is open to ANYONE ages 13-24!

Do I have to work with a partner or a team?

No, you may create and submit a video as an individual contestant.

Do I have to work with a teacher or organization leader to create a video?

No, you may create and submit a video on your own, but will need your parent/guardian's consent if under 18 years of age.

Can there be more than one executive producer?

No. There can be multiple members on a team, there can only be one executive producer per video.

How many student videos can one teacher be involved with in the making the video?

There is no limit to how many students an individual teacher may work with.

Can I use one of my favorite songs in the video or does it have to be original music?

Yes, you must add the song title and artist in the credits of your video if you use any music that is not your own.

If we show our school logo, do we have to get permission from the principal?

Yes, you should have written permission from your school administration in order to show your school logo in your video. Keep this document in your files in case it is needed.

Can I use my own consent forms that I have already had parents/students sign?

If under the age of 18 and, if and when, your video is nominated, you will be required to submit NO BULL Challenge's official release form(s) posted on the website. Failing to secure parental/guardian consent will disqualify your entry. Please inform your parent/guardian of your intentions before making your video, should you be nominated.

Since many stories involve social media, can I, include scenes of kids on Facebook, Twitter, etc, and have the logo or other company specifics showing in the video? Or do I have to conceal such information and avoid such scenes?

For questions regarding using social media logos, screenshots, etc, go to the each of their Brand Resource Centers for details.

If I am camera shy, can I just hold up note cards to the camera instead of talking into it?

Yes, you have full and complete creative control when making your video.

Do I need to put a NO BULL Header and Footer on my video in order for my video to be accepted?

Yes, in order for your video to be accepted be sure to download the NO BULL Header to add to the start of your video and the NO BULL footer to add to the end of your video!
